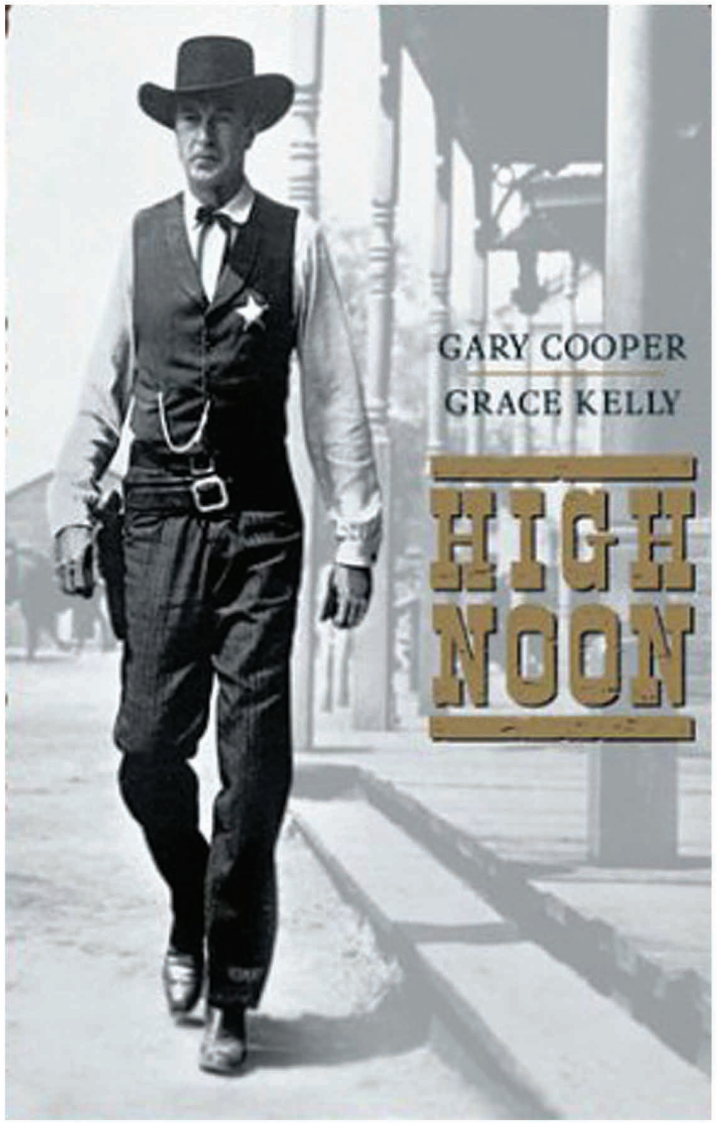
American Studies Film Series:



High Noon (1952)

Directed by Fred Zinnemann

Date: 22 February, 2011 (Tue)

Time: 7:30 pm - 10 pm

Venue: KKLG105, K.K.Leung Building

Introduced by: Dr. John Haddad

Visiting Fulbright Associate Professor
American Studies, The University of Hong Kong
Associate Professor
American Studies Pennsylvania State University, Harrisburg

John R. Haddad comes to The University of Hong Kong through the Fulbright Program. He currently holds a faculty position at Penn State Harrisburg University, where he teaches in the areas of American Popular Culture, American Literature, and Asian American Studies. Dr. Haddad is the author of one book and multiple articles, which all address American attempts to describe and understand China in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. In Hong Kong, he is conducting research on early Americans in the Pearl River Delta region – merchants, missionaries, and government officials.

All are welcome. No registration required.
For enquiries, please contact Ms. Cice Chan (2219 4403 / cice@hku.hk)

SCHOOL OF
MODERN LANGUAGES AND CULTURES
FACULTY OF ARTS, THE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG