“CNN U.S. Election Debate: Asia Matters”

In association with the University of Hong Kong

Asia is at the heart of many issues key to the 2012 U.S. Presidential Election. How do the Democrats and Republicans differ on issues relating to Asia and how will the outcome of the November 6 election impact the region? You are invited to attend a special “CNN U.S. Election Debate” asking Asian representatives of both parties these very questions.

FEATURING

- CNN Anchor/Correspondent, Kristie Lu Stout (pictured left)
- Chair, Asia, Republicans Abroad, Ross Feingold
- Chair, Democrats Abroad Hong Kong, Alex Montgomery

Issues to be addressed in the debate include:

- Trade relations with the US and China / other Asian countries
- Asian immigration to the U.S.
- Impact of policies on the global and specifically Asian economies
- US relations with Asian nations, including China and North Korea
