

SIK Fa Ren Ph.D., in Religious Studies, Lancaster University
Teaching Consultant,
Centre of Buddhist Studies, The University of Hong Kong

Fields of Specialty:

- ✧ Chinese Culture and Religions
- ✧ Studies on the practice of Chinese Buddhism
- ✧ History of Chinese Buddhism
- ✧ Studies of Chinese Buddhist Canons
- ✧ Chinese Buddhism in Contemporary period
- ✧ Anthropology approach to the studies of Chinese Buddhism

Publication

1. (in press). "Buddhism and Relief Work in Mainland China and Hong Kong" in Buddhism and International Relief Work. Edited by Hiroko Kawanami & Derek Maher. USA: Edwin Mellen Press.
2. (2010), "Connection between Sacred and Profane: Sanshi Xinian Fasi" presented at the conference of "Religion and Literature."
3. (2010), "The keys of earning the better life and/or afterlife offered by the Chinese Buddhist ritual, study of the ritual cycle presented by shuilu fahui" presented at The First Chinese Forum for Religious Studies "Religious Studies in Chinese Academic Contexts."
4. (2008), "Popular Buddhist Ritual in Contemporary Hong Kong: Shuilu Fahui, a Buddhist Rite for Saving All Sentient Beings of Water and Land" in Buddhist Studies Review 25(1), 91–105.
5. (August 2008), "Yulanpen Festival, the date for cultivating merit and practising filial piety," on the Mian Jiao 111, Ming Pao.
6. (2004), "Chapter 5, People" and "Chapter 6, Religious & Ritual" of the Conservation Study, Survey and Record and Condition Appraisal of Tsing Shan Monastery in Tuen Mun, New Territories, pp.91-102.

Honours and Awards

(2001-02, 2003-04), Dean's Honours List, Faculty of Arts, The Chinese University of Hong Kong

(2003) Graduated from The Chinese University of Hong Kong with the first class honour.