

ASIA^{as} the GLOBAL FUTURE

Four-week Credit-bearing Programme in Hong Kong • Macau
Shanghai • Hangzhou • Seoul

US$500
Discount

Early Bird
Register before February 15, 2009
Alumni Special
Family Members of HKU Alumni

Summer Institute@HKU
June 21 - July 19, 2009

Topics

- ASEAN and Southeast Asia
- Asian modernisation
- Business and economic development in Asia
- China and the world
- Climate change in Asia
- Culture and history of China
- Democratisation in Asia
- Developments in West Asia
- Economics with Chinese characteristics
- Human rights in Asia
- India and South Asia
- Korean history, society, politics and economics
- Macau: Asia's Las Vegas
- Popular culture in Asia
- Social and policy development in China
- The United States and Asia

Format

Lectures, field trips, group discussions

Study Tours

Macau, Shanghai, Hangzhou, Seoul

Fees

Application: US$45 (non-refundable)

Programme: US$3500 (inclusive of tuition fee, accommodation, air and ferry tickets for study tours and field trips)

Early bird/Alumni special: US$3000

[Note: Students must arrange their own travel to Hong Kong]

Application Deadline

March 31, 2009

Enquiries

Faculty of Social Sciences, HKU

Email: sumins@hku.hk

Centre of Asian Studies
Faculty of Social Sciences
The University of Hong Kong

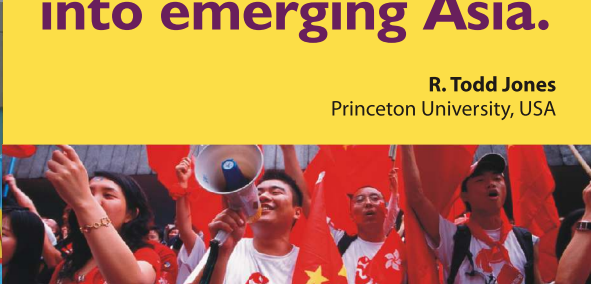

For details and application:

www.hku.hk/socsc/si/2009

An excellent look into emerging Asia.

R. Todd Jones
Princeton University, USA

The format is innovative, combining lectures, site visits and actual exposure to selected cultures in Asia.

Professor Edward Chen Kwan-yiu
Former President of Lingnan University, Hong Kong

A great opportunity to immerse yourself in the sights and sounds of Asia while being intellectually stimulated by world class lecturers.

Andrew Tan
University of New South Wales, Australia

My knowledge of the socio-political, economic and cultural aspects of Asia expanded and stimulated new ways of thinking, problem-solving and interpretation.

Shari Lauren Cupido
Stellenbosch University, South Africa

