Note: Only TOEFL/IELTS scores recorded in the two years before the date of application are considered.

- (d) shall satisfy the examiners in a qualifying examination if required.
3. An application for exemption from the above requirements shall be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Application

4. Applications for this programme and payment of application fee (HK$300 per application) should be submitted online at <https://admissions.hku.hk/tpg>.
5. After submitting the online application, applicants are required to upload the supporting documents within one month starting from the date of receipt of the email notification. A checklist of the required supporting documents is available at <https://admissions.hku.hk/tpg/programme-list>.
6. In order to support the University's environmental friendly initiatives, documents uploaded to the system should NOT be delivered to the University by post in duplicate, except for the official score report of TOEFL / IELTS.
7. Applicants who do not hear from the Faculty of Arts by August 31, 2024 may assume their applications unsuccessful.

Regulations and Syllabuses

8. The regulations and syllabuses for the MA programmes can be viewed at <https://admissions.hku.hk/tpg/programme-list>.

Concurrent Studies

9. General Regulation G6(b)(i) prohibits concurrent registration by a student of this University for any other post-secondary qualification either at this University or at any educational institution, unless approval of the Senate has been obtained in advance. Students in breach of this regulation may be required to discontinue their studies at this University.

Visa for Studies

10. If you are not a holder of a Hong Kong Permanent Identity Card, a dependent visa, a work visa or an IANG (Immigration Arrangements for Non-local Graduates) visa, you must obtain a student visa before registration in our programmes. Normally the student visa is only granted to those admitted to full-time studies. Students are responsible for ensuring that they have a valid visa and register in the programmes before the study begins. If any student fails to register in time, the offer of admission may be withdrawn and all fees already paid will not be refunded.

Scholarship

11. The award of the “MA in Chinese Language and Literature Entrance Scholarship” is based on the academic results in applicant’s undergraduate studies (First Class Honours or CGPA of 3.6 or above [or equivalent]). When those applicants whose academic results meet the said criteria have received offer of admission to the programme, they will be deemed eligible for the award of the Scholarship. Applicants currently in the final year of their undergraduate studies will also be considered for the Scholarship if their final academic results meet the criteria. Awardees of the Scholarship will be selected from applications received in the first round and will be decided by the Selection Committee. If quota has not been reached, applicants in the second round will be considered.
