THE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG

TAUGHT POSTGRADUATE PROGRAMME IN THE FACULTY OF ARCHITECTURE

Master of Science in Construction Project Management (2024-25)

1. Applications are invited for admission in September 2024 to the Master of Science in Construction Project Management programme (with/without a major option) (one year full-time and two year part-time modes). Details about the programme can be found at https://www.arch.hku.hk/programmes/rec/master-of-science-in-construction-project-management/.

Admission Requirements

2. To be eligible for admission to the programme, applicants shall satisfy both the University Entrance Requirements and the Programme Specific Requirements. They shall:

    (a) comply with the General Regulations and the Regulations for Taught Postgraduate Curricula;
    (b) hold a Bachelor's degree of this University or a qualification of equivalent standard from this University or another comparable institution accepted for this purpose;
    (c) satisfy the University English language requirement applicable to higher degrees as prescribed under General Regulation G2(b); and
    (d) satisfy the examiners in a qualifying examination if required.

How to Apply

3. Filing an application is a two-step process. First, applicants have to submit their applications via the University's online application system (https://admissions.hku.hk/tpg). Second, after the online application is submitted, applicants will receive instructions, via email, to upload the following supporting documents to the Faculty's MSc(CPM) Application Documents Submission System (http://admission.arch.hku.hk) by the application deadline:

    a) CV;
    b) Academic transcript of undergraduate (and postgraduate, as appropriate) studies;
    c) Graduation certificate and/or diploma of undergraduate (and postgraduate, as appropriate) studies[*];
    d) TOEFL/IELTS official score report [^];
    e) School attendance certificate (for current Mainland University students only); and
    f) Personal statement.

    For final-year undergraduate students, you should instead submit the latest version of your academic transcript which includes all the available assessment grades/marks of the courses taken.
    ^ It is a must for applicants from universities where the language of instruction and/or examination is not English.

4. In addition, applicants are required to nominate two referees to evaluate their abilities to pursue a postgraduate study. Preferably at least one of the two referees should be the current or former university teacher who can comment on your academic abilities. Applicants should make sure that the referees' email addresses are accurate when filling in the online application form. After the online application is submitted, the referees will receive an invitation email to complete an online referee form and upload a signed soft-copy (PDF) reference letter with letterhead on the Faculty's Referee Report Submission System.

Application Deadline

5.   The closing date for application (all steps above) is 12:00 noon (GMT +8), 2 January 2024 (Tuesday). Late application is normally not considered.

Application Fee

6.   An application fee of HK$300, which must be paid by credit card online, is non-refundable and non-transferrable. Once the application is submitted, information in the application cannot be changed.

Selection Process

7.   Shortlisted applicants will be invited to attend an admission interview from mid-January, and then the successful applicants will be notified of the result between March and July.

Tuition Fee (Subject to approval)

8.   For your reference, the tuition fee for 2024-25 intake is HK$250,080* per programme (72 credits for both full time and part time modes of study). [*subject to University's final approval]
